

SIMON SIMPLE AND BEN-GAL

Mary and Her Little Lamb

Now Mary's asked Percy to play "Having Tea"
But Perc says a Mollcoddle he'll never be

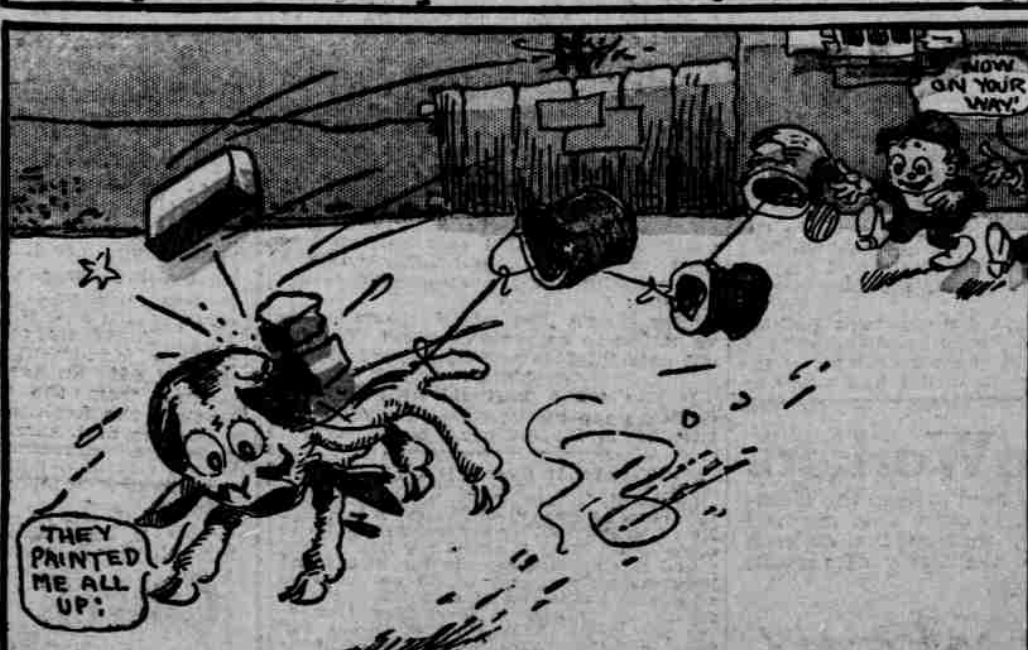

So off he went seeking to find other boys
To join in their pleasures and play with their toys

And soon he met two that he thought the right sort
And said with great pleasure hed jom in their sport

His welcome was warm and he got the "Glad Hand"
And also an invite to be one of their band

And with him for hours they played as boys will
And when they were through he had more than his fill

So homeward he trotted a sad sorry sight
And when he saw Mary said "Oh my!"
